RULES FOR CONTESTANTS

1. There will be a max of 16 teams in the race; each team will have 2 people. The teams will be supplied with building materials on race day and must build a boat out of the material provided.
2. Every team must register a name for their boat to place an entry.
3. No prefabrication will be allowed. Material selected for each Kamikaze team will be delivered to the construction site by Central Builders on race day.
4. Each team will supply their own sawhorses and tools. No power tools will be allowed. This includes Cordless tools. We recommend tarp tent stands for shade or rain. The construction area should be left viewable to spectators.
5. Construction must be completed within a 3 ½ hour time period (9am-12:30) Only contestants are allowed within the construction area. Assistance from any other person than the 2 team members will result in disqualification.
6. At the end of the construction period, boats will be carried to the starting point for judging. Contestants must clean their own sites. Deposits will be returned upon clean site check at the end of the race day.
Leaving before this is done will cause you to forfeit your deposit
7. Boats must carry both team members at the same time.
8. Boats are to be rowed or paddled during the first leg of the race. The crew members must then change positions and row or paddle their boats to the finish line.
Crew members must sit or kneel when paddling
9. Each race will consist of 4 heats of 4 boats. The winners of these heats will then race again for first, second and third place prizes. Start time is 1:00pm
10. Each boat must be equipped with a bailing device.
11. Each contestant must wear a Canadian Coast Guard approved life jacket.
12. Contestants are responsible for the recovery of their boats from the water. Contestants wanting to keep their boats must take them at the end of the race, or they will be destroyed by Central Builders.
13. All Contestants must supply their own costumes to be worn during the race.
14. No Commercial or club identification of teams or organizations will be permitted nor is this the event to be used for campaigning petitioning or otherwise promoting causes. Race officials reserve the right to refuse entry.
15. There will be no body contact or physical interference during any part of the race. This is a fun event and we do not wish to have anyone injured or create hard feelings. Acts of piracy will result in disqualification.
16. In the event of a boat sinking the contestants are to follow the instructions of the race officials and/ or the ground search and rescue team regarding the recovery of their boat.
17. Only contestants are allowed in the construction area and any promotional photographers of the event.
18. The decision of Race Officials is final
